Diabetes Camps

- Diabetes Education & Camping Association— One of the single best things you can do for a child with diabetes and their family is to send them to diabetes camp. There are over 400 diabetes camping programs worldwide helping more than 30,000 youth with diabetes and their families. To find a camp near you, visit www.diabetescamps.org.

Diabetes Camps in Texas:

- Camp Bluebonnet is a summer day camp in Youngsport, Texas. For more information about dates and activities please visit www.childrensdiabetescamp.org/ or call 512-554-6092.

- Camp Sweeney is built upon four ideals that campers and staff alike strive to achieve: Habitualization, Self Confidence, Self-Esteem and True Life-Long Friendships. It’s located 1.5 hours north of Dallas/Ft Worth in Gainesville, TX and is a fun residential camp that doesn’t just teach children about diabetes, but will show them how to use their inner strength each day to do what it takes to live a healthy lifestyle. For more information please visit www.campsweeney.org/ or call 940-665-2011.

- The Texas Lions Camp in Kerrville, Texas, offers camp for kids with diabetes and other disabilities. The camp is fully paid for by the Texas Lions. The Texas Lions Camp is accredited by the American Camping Association (ACA). For more information, please visit: www.lionscamp.com or call 830-896-8500.