

Frequently Asked Questions

What is JDRF PEAK Baltimore 2017?

The JDRF Performance in Exercise and Knowledge (PEAK) program is an innovative, unique outreach initiative to help increase education on effective management of physical activity for individuals with type 1 diabetes (T1D). Its goal is to break new ground in supporting safe, informed exercise within the T1D community. The JDRF PEAK program is available to physicians, nurses, pharmacists, diabetes educators, and other healthcare professionals involved in the management of those with T1D who exercise or wish to exercise.

Are CEUs being offered?

JDRF PEAK is accredited by the American Academy of CME for physicians, nurses, pharmacists, and dietitians. Accreditation information is available at <http://typeonenation.org/peak/accreditation-statements/>

Is there a cost to attend the event?

Yes, there is a cost to attend JDRF PEAK Baltimore for healthcare professionals. The cost per attendee is $100. Lunch and snack breaks are included and ample free parking is available at the Maritime Conference Center. The program is free for medical students.

What are my transportation/parking options for getting to and from the event?

The Maritime Conference Center (<http://mccbwi.org/directions>) is located at 692 Maritime Boulevard, Linthicum Heights, MD 21090-1952, minutes from BWI Airport. Shuttle service from the airport is available. Free parking is available at the Maritime Conference Center.
