

JDRF ILLINOIS NEW BOARD MEMBERS

Rosemarie Andolino

Rosemarie S. Andolino is the former Chairman of MAG USA and CEO of International Development for Manchester Airport Group (MAG) overseeing the development of both MAG's North American and global airport services business. Her focus was on delivering market leading commercial solutions that transform customer experiences in airports. MAG USA was launched in June 2015 and delivered four business lines to the U.S. market; Airport Lounges, All-Inclusive Parking Platforms, Online Travel Distribution and P3 Airport Terminal and Retail developments. MAG USA is a division of the Manchester Airports Group (MAG), a global airport company that owns and operates 3 UK airports.

Ms. Andolino joined MAG following more than 12 years at the Chicago Department of Aviation (CDA). As Commissioner she oversaw the management and operation of one of the world's busiest airport systems during a period of rapid expansion and redevelopment. She revived the organizations focus on customer service as well as leading the $26m redevelopment of O'Hare's International terminal, which drove record growth in retail and commercial revenues. Under her leadership the CDA added 40 new major routes and 12 new international carriers.

As Commissioner she also oversaw the $8 billion O'Hare Modernization Program (OMP), which reconfigured the airports complicated intersecting runways to improve efficiency and enhance the travelers experience. This infrastructure program was implemented ahead of time, under budget and without disruption to one of the world's busiest airfields.

Currently, Ms. Andolino sits on several boards and committees including the U.S. Department of Transportation National Advisory Committee on Travel and Tourism Infrastructure, The Illinois Sports Facilities Authority, PureCircle Limited and JDRF Illinois fundraising committee.

Rosemarie received a Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing/Advertising with a minor in Spanish from DePaul University.

Rosemarie was the Honorary Corporate Chair for JDRF Illinois Gala in 2014 and then stayed on the fundraising committee. Her nephew was diagnosed with T1D in June 2012.
