We recommend baskets do not include clothing or shoes, as size-specific items are not popular in our silent auction.

Dream for Cooper

Cooper likes going to Red Bull Stadium with his family and watching them score. He is a kid with T1D that likes potatoes, playing Minecraft, and spending time with his family. When a cure for T1D is found, Cooper will eat stuff he doesn't get to eat a lot of. He would be really happy and hopes the cure is drinkable and not an injection. Cooper thanks you for donating to JDRF and helping find a cure for diabetes.

Current Age: 9

Age at Diagnosis: 3

Cooper's Dream Basket included:

- (4) tickets to NY Red Bulls home game
- Red Bulls gear: scarf, water bottle, umbrella, hats
- Wireless speaker
- MLS soccer ball
- Red Bulls and coozies

Dream for Jack K.

Most of Jack's free time is spent with a lacrosse stick in hand. He works hard to do well at this challenging sport despite his T1D and still maintains his grades.

Jack and his family can't wait to celebrate a cure and are grateful for all the support of donors like you. They are thankful that Jack can just be Jack and never let his diabetes stop him.

Current Age: 15
Age at Diagnosis: 12

Jack's Dream Basket included:

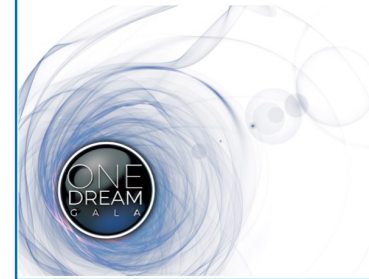

- Mouth guard
- Lacrosse Balls
- Lacrosse Stick Tape
- Gatorade Chews

Dream for Megan

This year will mark Megan's 10 year "diaversary". Over the years Megan has been witness to new technologies and support provided in part by the JDRF mission. Megan and her family enjoy time on the beach and volunteering at various JDRF programs and events. Megan is very thankful for all of the Gala attendees who are keeping the JDRF mission alive.

Current Age: 23
Age at Diagnosis: 13

Megan's Dream Basket included:

- (2) Tommy Bahama backpack
