

Research Spotlight

Wednesday, November 15, 2017
7:30–9:00 am

7:30 am Breakfast/Registration

8:00 am Program Begins

- Welcome and Chapter Updates
- Program, Guest Speaker, Doug Lowenstein

8:45 am Q & A

Doug Lowenstein

JDRF International
Board of Directors

Doug's passion for JDRF stems from his daughter's diagnosis of T1D at age 14. His service on multiple national committees, including Research and Advocacy, allows him to share the latest in research news as well as provide insight into how JDRF is maximizing relationships across the spectrum to amplify impact.

EVENT LOCATION:

Mount Mary University, 2900 Menomonee River Pkwy, Milwaukee

Building: Caroline Hall, Room: Helfaer Hall

Parking is free. A campus map will be sent upon registration confirmation.

FAQ

How do I RSVP?

Call Sandy Lange at 414-203-5527 or email southeastwi@jdrf.org by November 8, 2017

How much does it cost?

This event is free, however RSVPs are required and will be accepted on a first come, first served basis. The event does fill up, so RSVP today!

Will there be time for questions?

Yes! We have set aside time for a Q & A at the end of the program.

Who should attend?

Corporate leaders and parents of a child with T1D (type 1 diabetes) encouraged to attend.

Will food be provided?

Breakfast will be served, starting at 7:30 am.

A special thanks to Novo Nordisk for making this event possible.